

Communications Law

Guidelines for Contributors

A. Articles submitted should be original contributions and should not be under consideration for publication in any other journal. Copyright of material published in the Journal rests with the Publishers, Bloomsbury Professional Limited. Contributors to the Journal will be asked to sign an assignment of copyright or a publishing licence by the Publishers. Following publication, permission will usually be given (free of charge) to authors to publish their articles elsewhere, if they so request.

B. Contributors are entitled to two copies of the issue in which their article appears.

C. Articles must comply with the following specifications as the Editor will not undertake the re-typing of submissions which do not comply with Journal style.

1. Manuscripts should be supplied in a format compatible with standard word-processing packages, preferably MS Word. Manuscripts should be emailed to Dr Paul Wragg (P.M.Wragg@leeds.ac.uk), with a copy to Julian Harris (brandlingharris@dsl.pipex.com). Please note that Bloomsbury Professional's Communications Law is a refereed journal, and details of the peer review policy are provided on the inside front cover.

2. Authors should keep at least one copy of their article.

3. Book titles should be in italics or underlined; articles/essays contained within should appear in single quotes. Periodicals should be given their standard abbreviations and should not be italicised eg LQR not Law Quarterly Review.

4. Law reports should appear using the standard abbreviations of their titles and should not be in italics or underlined. Full stops should not be used in case names, or law report citations. Abbreviations should be preceded by year (in square brackets where the year is an essential element, otherwise use round brackets) and volume number; page number(s) should follow abbreviation: (1991) 88 LGR 737–50.

5. References to journals should appear as follows: (1987) 3 CL 193–97. Standard abbreviations of titles are: Communications Law CL; Professional Negligence PN; Trust Law International TLI; Immigration, Asylum IANL; and Nationality Law. Subsequent references to sources already used should follow the ibid and supra system.

6. Italicise or underline words to appear in italics.

7. Spelling should comply with British, not American forms, eg -ise, not -ize, as in nationalise. Numbers one to twelve and per cent to be spelt out.

8. Quotation marks: use single quotes throughout, except for a quote within a quote – for this use double quotes.

D. Book reviews: full publication information should be given at the top of the review: title, author, edition, publisher, date, ISBN/ISSN, number of pages, price, pb (paperback)/hb (hardback). Eg:
