

Singapore Constitution 1963

29th August 1963

At the Court at Balmoral, the 29th day of August 1963

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in that behalf by section 1 of the Malaysia Act 1963 or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Citation

1.—This Order may be cited as the Sabah, Sarawak and Singapore (State Constitutions) Order in Council 1963.

Scheduled constitutions to come into effect

- 2.—(i) This constitution set out in Schedule 1 to this Order shall come into effect in North Borneo, which shall thereupon be known as the State of Sabah.
- (ii) The constitution set out in Schedule 2 to this Order shall come into effect in Sarawak, which shall thereupon be known as the State of Sarawak.
- (iii) The constitution set out in Schedule 3 to this Order shall come into effect in the State of Singapore.

CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF SINGAPORE

THE STATE OF GOVERNMENT

The *Yang di-Pertuan Negara

- 1.—(i) There shall be a Yang di-Pertuan Negara of the State, who shall be appointed by the Yang di-Pertuan Agong acting in his discretion but after consultation with the Prime Minister.
- (ii) The Yang di-Pertuan Negara shall be appointed for a term of four years but may at any time resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Yang di-Pertuan Agong and may be removed from office by the Yang di-Pertuan Agong in pursuance of an address by the Legislative Assembly supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the total number of the Members thereof.
- (iii) The Yang di-Pertuan Agong, acting in his discretion but after consultation with the Prime Minister, may appoint a person to exercise the functions of the Yang di-Pertuan Negara during any period during which the Yang di-Pertuan Negara is unable to do so himself owing to illness, absence or any other cause; but no person shall be so appointed unless he would be qualified to be appointed as Yang di-Pertuan Negara.
- (iv) A person appointed under clause (iii) of this Article may take the place of the Yang di-Pertuan Negara as a member of the Conference of Rulers during any period during which, under that clause he may exercise the functions of Yang di-Pertuan Negara.

Qualifications and Disabilities of *Yang di-Pertuan Negara

- 2.—(i) A person who is not a citizen of Malaysia born in Malaya shall not be appointed Yang di-Pertuan Negara.

- (ii) The Yang di-Pertuan Negara shall not hold any office of profit and shall not actively engage in any commercial enterprise.

Oath of Office of *Yang di-Pertuan Negara

3.—The Yang di-Pertuan Negara or person appointed to exercise the functions of the Yang di-Pertuan Negara under clause (iii) of Article 1 of this Constitution shall before exercising his functions take and subscribe in the presence of the Chief Justice of Singapore or of another Judge of the High Court an oath in the form set out in the First Schedule to this Constitution.

Civil List and Personal Staff of Yang di-Pertuan Negara and Remuneration of Acting *Yang di-Pertuan Negara

- 4.—(i) The Legislature shall by law provide a Civil List for the Yang di-Pertuan Negara.
- (ii) Any other person authorised under this Constitution to exercise the functions of the office of Yang di-Pertuan Negara shall, during any period during which he exercises those functions, be entitled to such remuneration as the Legislature may by law provide.
  - (iii) The Civil List of the Yang di-Pertuan Negara and the remuneration to which any person is entitled under the preceding clause shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund and shall not be diminished during the continuance in office of the Yang di-Pertuan Negara or, as the case may be, during the period during which the said person exercises the functions of the office of Yang di-Pertuan Negara.

- (iv) Subject to the provisions of the following clause, the appointment, terms of service, disciplinary control, termination of appointment and dismissal of the personal staff of the Yang di-Pertuan Negara shall be matters for the Yang di-Pertuan Negara acting in his discretion.
- (v) The Yang di-Pertuan Negara, if he so desires, may appoint to his personal staff such public officers as he may select, after consultation with the Prime Minister, from a list submitted by the Public Service Commission and the provisions of the preceding Clause (except in so far as they relate to appointment) shall apply in relation to a person so appointed as respects his service on the personal staff of the Yang di-Pertuan Negara but not as respects his service as a public officer.
- (vi) The remuneration of the personal staff of the Yang di-Pertuan Negara, other than a person appointed under the preceding clause, shall be defrayed out of the Civil List of the Yang di-Pertuan Negara.

Yang di-Pertuan Negara to Act on Advice

- 5.—(i) In the exercise of his functions under this Constitution or any laws or as a member of the Conference of Rulers the Yang di-Pertuan Negara shall act in accordance with the advice of the Cabinet or of a Minister acting under the general authority of the Cabinet, except as otherwise provided by the Federal Constitution or this Constitution; but shall be entitled, at his request, to any information concerning the Government of the State which is available to the Cabinet.
- (ii) The Yang di-Pertuan Negara may act in his discretion in the performance of the following functions (in addition to those in the performance of which he may act in his discretion under the Federal Constitution or other provisions of this Constitution) that is to say:

- (a) the appointment of the Prime Minister;
  - (b) the withholding of consent to a request for the dissolution of the Legislative Assembly.
- (iii) The Legislature may by law make provision for requiring the Yang di-Pertuan Negara to act after consultation with or on the recommendation of any person or body of persons other than the Cabinet in the exercise of his functions other than the Cabinet in the exercise of his functions other than:
- (a) functions exercisable in his discretion;
  - (b) functions with respect to the exercise of which provision is made in any other provision of this Constitution or in the Federal Constitution.

Muslim Religion

- 6.—(i) The Yang di-Pertuan Negara Agong shall be the Head of the Muslim religion in the State
- (ii) The Legislature shall by law make provision for regulating Muslim religious affairs and for constituting a Council to advise the Yang di-Pertuan Negara Agong in matters relating to the Muslim religion.

Executive Authority of the State

- 7.—(i) The executive authority of the State shall be vested in the Yang di-Pertuan Negara and exercisable subject to the provisions of this Constitution by him or by the Cabinet or any Minister authorised by the Cabinet.

- (ii) The Legislature may by law confer executive functions on other persons.

Cabinet

- 8.—(i) There shall be in and for the State a Cabinet which shall consist of the Prime Minister and such other Ministers as may be appointed in accordance with the provisions of the following Article.
- (ii) Subject to the provisions of the Federal Constitution and of this Constitution, the Cabinet shall have the general direction and control of the Government of the State and shall be collectively responsible to the Legislative Assembly.

Appointment of Ministers

- 9.—(i) The Yang di-Pertuan Negara shall appoint as Prime Minister a Member of the Legislative Assembly who in his judgment is likely to command the confidence of the majority of the Members of the Legislative Assembly, and shall, acting in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister, appoint other Ministers from among the Members of the Legislative Assembly:
- Provided that, if an appointment is made while the Legislative Assembly is dissolved, a person who was a member of the last Legislative Assembly may be appointed but shall not continue to hold office after the first sitting of the next Legislative Assembly unless he is a member thereof.

- (ii) Appointments under this Article shall be made by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara by instrument under the public seal.

Tenure of Office of Ministers

10.—(i) The Yang di-Pertuan Negara shall, by writing under the public seal, declare the office of Prime Minister vacant:

- (a) if the Prime Minister resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Yang di-Pertuan Negara; or
- (b) if the Yang di-Pertuan Negara acting in his discretion is satisfied that the Prime Minister has ceased to command the confidence of a majority of the Members of the Legislative Assembly:

Provided that, before declaring the office of Prime Minister vacant under this paragraph, the Yang di-Pertuan Negara shall inform the Prime Minister that he is satisfied as aforesaid, and, if the Prime Minister so requests, the Yang di-Pertuan Negara may dissolve the Legislative Assembly instead of making such a declaration.

- (ii) A Minister other than the Prime Minister shall vacate his office:
- (a) if his appointment to that office is revoked by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara, acting in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister, by instrument under the public seal; or
- (b) if he resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Yang di-Pertuan Negara.

- (iii) A person who has vacated his office as Minister may, if qualified, be again appointed as Minister from time to time.
- (iv) (a) Whenever the Prime Minister is ill or absent from the Federation or has been granted leave of absence from his duties under Article 16 of this Constitution, the functions conferred on him by this Constitution shall be exercisable by any other Minister authorized by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara, by instrument under the public seal, in that behalf.
- (b) The Yang di-Pertuan Negara may, by instrument under the public seal, revoke any authority given under this clause.
- (c) The powers conferred upon the Yang di-Pertuan Negara by this clause shall be exercised by him acting in his discretion, if in his opinion it is impracticable to obtain the advice of the Prime Minister owing to the Prime Minister's illness or absence, and in any other case shall be exercised by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister.
- (d) The Prime Minister shall not, for the purpose of this clause, be regarded as absent from the Federation at any time during his passage from one part of the Federation to another.

Oath

11.—The Prime Minister and every other Minister shall, before entering on the duties of his office, take and subscribe before the Yang di-Pertuan Negara the Oath of Allegiance and the appropriate Oath for the due execution of his office in the forms set out in the First Schedule to this Constitution.

Summoning of and Presiding in the Cabinet

- 12.—(i) The Cabinet shall not be summoned except by the authority of the Prime Minister.
- (ii) The Prime Minister shall, so far as is practicable, attend and preside at meetings of the Cabinet and, in his absence, such other Minister shall preside as the Prime Minister shall appoint.

Validity of Proceedings in the Cabinet

- 13.—Any proceedings in the Cabinet shall be valid notwithstanding that some person who was not entitled so to do sat or voted therein or otherwise took part in the proceedings.

Assignment of Responsibility to Ministers

- 14.—(i) The Prime Minister may, by directions in writing:
- (a) charge any Minister with responsibility for any department or subject;
  - (b) revoke or vary any directions given under this clause.
- (ii) The Prime Minister may retain in his charge any department or subject.

Parliamentary Secretaries

- 15.—(i) The Yang di-Pertuan Negara, acting in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister, may by instrument under the public seal, appoint Parliamentary Secretaries from among the Members of the Legislative Assembly to assist Ministers in the discharge of their duties and functions:

Provided that, if an appointment is made while the Legislative Assembly is dissolved, a person who was a member of the last Legislative Assembly may be appointed a Parliamentary Secretary but shall not continue to hold office after the first sitting of the next Legislative Assembly unless he is a member thereof.

- (ii) The provisions of clauses (ii) and (iii) of Article 10 and the provisions of Article 11 of this Constitution shall apply to Parliamentary Secretaries as they apply to Ministers.

Leave of Absence for Ministers and Parliamentary Secretaries

- 16.—The Yang di-Pertuan Negara, acting in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister, may grant leave of absence from his duties to the Prime Minister, to any other Minister and to any Parliamentary Secretary.

Disabilities of Ministers and Parliamentary Secretaries

17. —A member of the Cabinet or Parliamentary Secretary shall not hold any office of profit and shall not actively engage in any commercial enterprise.

Permanent Secretaries

- 18.—(i) There shall be for each Ministry one or more Permanent Secretaries who shall be persons who are public officers.
- (ii) (a) Appointments to the grade of Permanent Secretary shall be made by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara acting in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister, from a list of names submitted by the Public Service Commission.

- (b) The responsibility for the allocation of each Permanent Secretary to a Ministry shall be vested in the Prime Minister.
- (iii) Every Permanent Secretary shall, subject to the general direction and control of the Minister, exercise supervision over the department or departments to which he is allocated.

State Advocate-General

- 19.—(i) The office of State Advocate-General is hereby constituted and appointments thereto shall be made by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara, acting in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister, from among persons who are qualified for appointment as a Judge of the High Court.
- (ii) When it is necessary to make an appointment to the office of State Advocate-General otherwise than by reason of the death of the holder of that office or his removal from office under clause (v) of this Article, the Prime Minister shall, before tendering advice to the Yang di-Pertuan Negara under the preceding clause, consult the person holding the office of State Advocate-General or, if that office is then vacant, the person who has last vacated it, and the Prime Minister shall, in every case, before tendering such advice, consult the Chief Justice of Singapore and the Chairman of the Public Service Commission.

(iii) The State Advocate-General may be appointed for a specific period and, if he was so appointed, shall subject to the provisions of clause (v) of this Article, vacate his office (without prejudice to his eligibility for re-appointment) at the expiration of that period, but, subject as aforesaid, shall otherwise hold office until he attains the age of fifty-five years:

Provided that:

- (a) he may at any time resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Yang di-Pertuan Negara; and
  - (b) the Yang di-Pertuan Negara, acting in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister, may permit a State Advocate-General who has attained the age of fifty-five years to remain in office for such fixed period as may have been agreed between the State Advocate-General and the Government.
- (iv) Nothing done by the State Advocate-General shall be invalid by reason only that he has attained the age at which he is required by this Article to vacate his office.
- (v) (a) The State Advocate-General may be removed from office by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara, acting in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister, but the Prime Minister shall not tender such advice except for inability of the State Advocate-General to discharge the functions of his office (whether arising from infirmity of body or mind or any other cause) or for misbehaviour and except with the concurrence of a tribunal consisting of the Chief Justice of Singapore and two other Judges of the High Court nominated for that purpose by the Chief Justice of Singapore.

- (b) The tribunal constituted under this clause shall regulate its own procedure and may make rules for that purpose.
- (vi) It shall be the duty of the State Advocate-General to advise the Government upon such legal matters and to perform such other duties of a legal character, as may from time to time be referred or assigned to him by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara or the Cabinet and to discharge the functions conferred on him by or under this Constitution, the Federal Constitution, or any other written law.
- (vii) The State Advocate-General shall be paid such remuneration and allowances as may from time to time be determined and such remuneration and allowances shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund.
- (viii) Subject to the provisions of this Article, the terms of service of the State Advocate-General shall either:
  - (a) be determined by or under any law made under this Constitution; or
  - (b) (in so far as they are not determined by or under any such law) be determined by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara.
- (ix) The terms of service of the State Advocate-General shall not be altered to his disadvantage during his continuance in office.
- (x) For the purposes of the preceding clause, in so far as the terms of service of the State Advocate-General depend upon his option, any terms for which he opts shall be taken to be more advantageous to him than any for which he might have opted.

Secretary to the Cabinet

- 20.—(i) The Yang di-Pertuan Negara acting in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister may appoint a public officer to be the Secretary to the Cabinet.
- (ii) The Secretary to the Cabinet shall be responsible, in accordance with such instructions as may be given to him by the Prime Minister, for arranging the business for, and keeping the minutes of, the meetings of the Cabinet and for conveying the decisions of the Cabinet to the appropriate person or authority and shall have such other functions as the Prime Minister may from time to time direct.

Capacity of State as regards Property, Contracts and Suits

- 21.—(i) The State shall have power to acquire, hold and dispose of property of any kind and to make contracts.
- (ii) The State may sue and be sued.

THE LEGISLATURE

Legislature of the State

- 22.—The Legislature of the State shall consist of the Yang di-Pertuan Negara and the Legislative Assembly.

Legislative Assembly

- 23.—(i) The Legislative Assembly shall consist of such number of elected Members as the Legislature may by law provide, and until other provision is so made, the number of Members shall be fifty-one.

- (ii) If any person who is not a Member of the Legislative Assembly is elected as Speaker, he shall by virtue of holding the office of Speaker be a Member of the Legislative Assembly in addition to the Members aforesaid, except for the purposes of Articles 7 to 20 and of Article 30 of this Constitution.

Speaker

- 24.—(i) When the Legislative Assembly first meets after any general election and before it proceeds to the despatch of any other business, it shall elect a person to be Speaker, and, whenever the office of Speaker is vacant otherwise than by reason of a dissolution of the Legislative Assembly, shall not transact any business other than the election of a person to fill that office.
- (ii) The Speaker may be elected, in such manner as the Legislative Assembly may from time to time decide, either from among the Members of the Legislative Assembly who are neither Ministers nor Parliamentary Secretaries or from among persons who are not Members of the Legislative Assembly.
  - (iii) Upon the Speaker being elected and before he enters upon the duties of his office, he shall (unless he has already done so in accordance with the provisions of Article 45 of this Constitution) take and subscribe before the Legislative Assembly the Oath of Allegiance in the form set out in the First Schedule to this Constitution.

- (iv) The Speaker may at any time resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, and shall vacate his office:
- (a) when the Legislative Assembly first meets after a general election; or
  - (b) in the case of a Speaker elected from among the Members of the Legislative Assembly, if he ceases to be a Member of the Legislative Assembly otherwise than by reason of a dissolution thereof or if he is appointed to be a Minister or a Parliamentary Secretary; or
  - (c) in the case of a Speaker elected from among persons who are not Members of the Legislative Assembly, if any circumstances arises that, if he had been elected to a seat in the Legislative Assembly, would cause him to vacate his seat by virtue of paragraph (a) or paragraph (e) of clause (ii) of Article 30 of this Constitution.

Remuneration of Speaker

25.—The Speaker shall be paid such salary as the Legislative Assembly may from time to time determine, and that salary, which is hereby charged on the Consolidated Fund, shall not be diminished during his continuance in office.

Deputy Speaker

26.—(i) When the Legislative Assembly first meets after any general election, it shall, as soon as practicable, elect a Member thereof, not being a Minister or a Parliamentary Secretary to be Deputy Speaker; and whenever the office of Deputy Speaker becomes vacant otherwise than by reason of a dissolution of the Legislative Assembly, the Legislative Assembly shall, as soon as convenient, elect another such Member thereof to that office.

- (ii) The Deputy Speaker may at any time resign office, by writing under his hand addressed to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, and shall vacate his office:
  - (a) if he ceases to be a Member of the Legislative Assembly; or
  - (b) if he is appointed to be a Minister or a Parliamentary Secretary; or
  - (c) if he is elected as Speaker.
- (iii) The Deputy Speaker shall be paid such salary or allowance as the Legislative Assembly may from time to time determine, and that salary or allowance, which is hereby charged on the Consolidated Fund, shall not be diminished during his continuance in office.

Performance and Functions of Speaker

27.—The functions conferred by this Constitution upon the Speaker shall, if there is no person holding the office of Speaker or if the Speaker is absent from a sitting of the Legislative Assembly or is otherwise unable to perform those functions, be performed by the Deputy Speaker, or if there be no Deputy Speaker or if he is likewise absent or unable to perform those functions, by some other person to be elected by the Legislative Assembly for the purpose.

Qualifications for Membership of Legislative Assembly

- 28.—(i) Members of the Legislative Assembly shall be persons qualified for election in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution and elected in the manner provided by or under any law for the time being in force in the State.
- (ii) A person shall be qualified to be elected as a Member of the Legislative Assembly if:
- (a) he is a citizen of Singapore;
  - (b) he is of the age of twenty-one years or upwards on the day of nomination;
  - (c) his name appears in a current register of electors;
  - (d) he is resident in the State at the date of his nomination for election;
  - (e) he is able, with a degree of proficiency sufficient to enable him to take an active part in the proceedings of the Legislative Assembly, to speak and, unless incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause, to read and write at least one of the following languages, that is to say, English, Malay, Mandarin and Tamil; and
  - (f) he is not disqualified from being a Member of the Legislative Assembly under the provisions of Article 29 of this Constitution.
- (3) Any question whether any person possesses the qualifications mentioned in paragraph (e) of the preceding clause shall be determined in such manner as may be prescribed by or under any law for the time being in force in the State or, in so far as not so prescribed, as may be provided by Order made by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara and published in the Gazette.

Disqualification for Membership of Legislative Assembly

29.—(i) Subject to the provisions of this Article, a person shall not be qualified to be a Member of the Legislative Assembly who:

- (a) is and has been found or declared to be of unsound mind;
- (b) is an undischarged bankrupt;
- (c) holds an office of profit;
- (d) having been nominated for election to either House or Parliament or to the Legislative Assembly or having acted as election agent to a person so nominated, has failed to lodge any return of election expenses required by law within the time and in the manner so required;
- (e) has been convicted of an offence by a court of law in any part of the Federation and sentenced to imprisonment for a term of not less than one year or to a fine of not less than two thousand dollars and has not received a free pardon;
- (f) has voluntarily acquired citizenship of, or exercised rights of citizenship in a foreign country or has made a declaration of allegiance to a foreign country;
- (g) is disqualified under any law relating to offences in connection with elections to either House of Parliament or to the Legislative Assembly by reason of having been convicted of such an offence or having in proceedings relating to such an election been proved guilty of an act constituting such an offence.

(ii) The disqualification of a person under paragraph (d) or paragraph (e) of clause (i) of this Article may be removed by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara and shall, if not so removed, cease at the end of five years beginning from the date on which the return mentioned in the said paragraph (d) was required to be lodged or, as the case may be, the date on which the person convicted as mentioned in the said paragraph (e) was released from custody or the date on which the fine mentioned in the said paragraph (e) was imposed on such person; and a person shall not be disqualified under paragraph (f) of clause (i) of this Article by reason only of anything done by him before he became a citizen.

- (iii) In paragraph (f) of clause (i) of this Article “foreign country” has the same meaning as in the Federal Constitution.

Tenure of Office of Members

- 30.—(i) Every Member of the Legislative Assembly shall cease to be a Member at the next dissolution of the Legislative Assembly after he has been elected, or previously thereto if his seat becomes vacant, under the provisions of this Constitution.
- (ii) The seat of a Member of the Legislative Assembly shall become vacant:
- (a) if he ceases to be a citizen of Singapore; or
  - (b) in the case of a Member elected after the coming into force of this constitution, if he ceases to be a member of, or is expelled or resigns from, the political party for which he stood in the election; or
  - (c) if, by writing under his hand addressed to the Speaker, he resigns his seat in the Legislative Assembly; or

- (d) if during two consecutive months in each of which sittings of the Legislative Assembly (or any committee of the Legislative Assembly to which he has been appointed) are held, he is absent from all such sittings without having obtained from the Speaker before the termination of any such sitting permission to be or to remain absent therefrom; or
  - (e) if he becomes subject to any of the disqualifications specified in Article 29 of this Constitution.
- (iii) Any person whose seat in the Legislative Assembly has become vacant may, if qualified, again be elected as a Member of the Legislative Assembly from time to time.

Provision against Double Membership

31.—A person shall not be at the same time a Member of the Legislation Assembly for more than one constituency.

Decision of Questions as to Disqualification

32.—Any question whether:

- (i) any Member of the Legislative Assembly has vacated his seat therein;
  - (ii) in the case of any person who has been elected as Speaker from among persons who are not Members of the Legislative Assembly, any circumstances has arisen that, if he had been elected to a seat in the Legislative Assembly would cause him to vacate his seat by virtue of paragraph (a) or paragraph (e) of clause (ii) of Article 30 of this Constitution,
- shall be determined by the Legislative Assembly whose decision shall be final:

Provided that this Article shall not be taken to prevent the practice of the Legislative Assembly postponing a decision in order to allow for the taking or determination of any proceedings that may affect the decision (including proceedings for the removal of the disqualification).

Filling of Vacancies

33.—Whenever the seat of a Member has become vacant for any reason other than a dissolution, the vacancy shall within three months from the date on which it is established that there is a vacancy be filled by election in the manner provided by or under any law for the time being in force in the State.

Penalty for Unqualified Persons Sitting or Voting in the Legislative Assembly

- 34.—(i) Any person who sits or votes in the Legislative Assembly, knowing or having reasonable ground for knowing that he is not entitled to do so, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars for each day on which he so sits or votes.
- (ii) The said penalty shall be recoverable by action in the High Court at the suit of the State Advocate-General.

Staff of Legislative Assembly

35.—(i) The staff of the Legislative Assembly shall consist of a Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, and such other officers as may from time to time be appointed under Part 4 of this Constitution to assist him.

- (ii) The Clerk of the Legislative Assembly shall be appointed by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara after consultation with the Speaker and the Public Service Commission.
- (iii) The Clerk of the Legislative Assembly may at any time resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Speaker and, subject to the provisions of the following clause, may be removed from office by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara after consultation with the Speaker.
- (iv) The Clerk of the Legislative Assembly shall not be removed from office under the preceding clause unless the Legislative Assembly, by a resolution which has received the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of all the Members thereof, has resolved that he ought to be so removed for inability to discharge the functions of his office (whether arising from infirmity of body or mind or any other cause) or for misbehaviour.
- (v) The staff of the Legislative Assembly shall not be eligible for promotion or transfer to any other office in the public service without the consent of the Speaker.
- (vi) Subject to the provisions of Article 101 of this Constitution, the terms of service of the staff of the Legislative Assembly may be determined by the Legislative Assembly after receiving the advice of a Commission consisting of the following persons, that is to say:
  - (a) the Speaker, as Chairman;
  - (b) not more than three Ministers nominated by the Prime Minister, of whom one shall be the Minister responsible for finance; and
  - (c) a member of the Public Service Commission.

Standing Orders

36.—Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the Legislative Assembly may from time to time make, amend and revoke Standing Orders for the regulation and orderly conduct of its own proceedings and the despatch of business.

Use of Languages in Legislative Assembly

37.—Until the Legislature otherwise provides all debates and discussions in the Legislative Assembly shall be conducted in the Malay, English, Mandarin or Tamil languages.

Presiding in Legislative Assembly

38.—The Speaker shall preside at each sitting of the Legislative Assembly.

Validity of Proceedings of Legislative Assembly

39.—The Legislative Assembly shall not be disqualified for the transaction of business by reason of any vacancy among the Members thereof, including any vacancy not filled when the Legislative Assembly is first constituted or is reconstituted at any time; and any proceedings therein shall be valid notwithstanding that some person who was not entitled so to do sat or voted in the Legislative Assembly or otherwise took part in the proceedings.

Quorum

40.—If objection is taken by any Member present that there are present (besides the Speaker or other Member presiding) fewer than one-quarter of the total number of Members and, after such interval as may be prescribed in the Standing Orders of the Legislative Assembly, the Speaker or other Member presiding ascertains that the number of Members present is still less than one quarter of the total number of Members, he shall thereupon adjourn the Legislative Assembly.

Voting

- 41.—(i) Save as otherwise provided in this Constitution, all questions proposed for decision in the Legislative Assembly shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the Members present and voting; and if, upon any question before the Legislative Assembly, the votes of the Members are equally divided, the motion shall be lost.
- (ii) If the Speaker has been elected from among persons who are not Members of the Legislative Assembly, he shall not vote, but, subject to this provision, the Speaker or other person presiding shall have an original vote but no casting vote.

Exercise of Legislative Power

- 42.—(i) The power of the Legislature to make laws shall be exercised by Bills passed by the Legislative Assembly and assented to by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara.
- (ii) A Bill shall become law on being assented to by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara and such law shall come into operation on the date of its publication in the Gazette or, if is enacted either in such law or in any other law for the time being in force in the State that it shall come into operation on some other date, on that date.

Introduction of Bills

- 43.—(i) Subject to the provisions of this Constitution and of Standing Orders of the Legislative Assembly, any Member may introduce any Bill or propose any motion for debate in, or may present any petition to, the Legislative Assembly, and the same shall be debated and disposed of according to the Standing Orders of the Legislative Assembly.
- (ii) A Bill or amendment making provision (whether directly or indirectly) for:
- (a) imposing or increasing any tax or abolishing, reducing or remitting any existing tax; or
  - (b) the borrowing of money, or the giving of any guarantee, by the State, or the amendment of the law relating to the financial obligations of the State;
  - (c) the custody of the Consolidated Fund, the charging of any money on the Consolidated Fund or the abolition or alteration of any such charge;
  - (d) the payment of moneys into the Consolidated Fund or the payment, issue or withdrawal from the Consolidated Fund of any moneys not charged thereon, or any increase in the amount of such a payment, issue or withdrawal;
  - (e) the receipt of any moneys on account of the Consolidated Fund or the custody or issue of such moneys; being provision as respects which the Minister charged with responsibility for finance signifies that it goes beyond what is incidental only and not of a substantial nature having regard to the purposes of the Bill or amendment, shall not be introduced or moved except on the recommendation of the Yang di-Pertuan Negara signified by a Minister.

- (iii) A Bill or amendment shall not be deemed to make provision for any of the said matters by reason only that it provides for the imposition or alteration of any fine or other pecuniary penalty or for the payment or demand of a licence fee or a fee or charge for any service rendered.

Words of Enactment of Laws

44.—In every Bill presented for assent the words of enactment shall be as follows:

“Be it enacted by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Singapore, as follows:”

Oath of Allegiance

45.—No Member of the Legislative Assembly shall be permitted to take part in the proceedings thereof (other than proceedings necessary for the purpose of this Article) until he has taken and subscribed before the Legislative Assembly the Oath of Allegiance in the form set out in the First Schedule to this Constitution:

Provided that the election of a Speaker may take place before the Members of the Legislative Assembly have taken and subscribed such Oath.

Address by *Yang di-Pertuan Negara

46.—The Yang di-Pertuan Negara may address the Legislative Assembly and may send messages thereto.

Privileges of the Legislative Assembly and Members

47.—Subject to the provisions of the Federal Constitution, it shall be lawful for the Legislature by law to determine and regulate the privileges, immunities or powers of the Legislative Assembly; but no such privileges, immunities or powers shall exceed those of the Federal House of Representatives.

Sessions of the Legislative Assembly

- 48.—(i) There shall be a session of the Legislative Assembly once at least in every year and a period of six months shall not intervene between the last sitting of the Legislative Assembly in any one session and the first sitting thereof in the next session.
- (ii) The sessions of the Legislative Assembly shall be held in such places and shall commence at such times as the Yang di-Pertuan Negara may from to time appoint by Proclamation in the Gazette.

Prorogation and Dissolution

- 49.—(i) The Yang di-Pertuan Negara may at any time, by Proclamation in the Gazette, prorogue the Legislative Assembly.
- (ii) If, at any time, the office of Prime Minister is vacant, the Yang di-Pertuan Negara shall, by Proclamation in the Gazette, dissolve the Legislative Assembly as soon as he is satisfied, acting in his discretion, that a reasonable period has elapsed since that office was last vacated and that there is no Member of the Legislative Assembly likely to command the confidence of a majority of the Members thereof.

- (iii) The Yang di-Pertuan Negara may at any time, by Proclamation in the Gazette, dissolve the Legislative Assembly if he is advised by the Prime Minister so to do, but he shall not be obliged to act in this respect in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister unless he is satisfied that, in tendering that advice, the Prime Minister commands the confidence of a majority of the Members of the Legislative Assembly.
- (iv) The Legislative Assembly unless sooner dissolved shall continue for five years from the date of its first sitting and shall then stand dissolved.

General Elections

50.—There shall be a general election at such time within three months after every dissolution of the Legislative Assembly as the Yang di-Pertuan Negara shall appoint by Proclamation published in the Gazette.

Remuneration of Members

51.—The Legislature may by law make provision for the remuneration of Members of the Legislative Assembly.

Supremacy of Constitution

52.—Any law enacted by the Legislature after the coming into operation of this Constitution which is inconsistent with this Constitution shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, be void.

- (a) is the child of a citizen of Singapore; and
- (b) is residing in the State, cause such child to be registered as a citizen of Singapore on application being made therefor in the prescribed manner by the parent or guardian of such child.

(ii) The Government may, in such special circumstances as it thinks fit, cause any child under the age of twenty-one years, who is not a citizen of Malaysia, to be registered as a citizen of Singapore.

Effect of Enrolment and Registration

59.—Subject to the provisions of Article 60 of this Constitution a person enrolled or registered as a citizen of Singapore under Article 56, 57 or 58 of this Constitution shall be a citizen of Singapore from the date on which he is so enrolled or registered.

General Provisions as to Registration

60.—(i) No person shall be registered as a citizen of Singapore under Article 57 of this Constitution until he has taken the oath of allegiance and loyalty in the form prescribed in the Second Schedule to this Constitution.

(ii) Except with the approval of the Government of the Federation, no person who has renounced or has been deprived of citizenship of Singapore or of citizenship of the Federation of Malaya or of citizenship of Malaysia under this Constitution or the Singapore Citizenship

Ordinance, 1957 or the Federal Constitution or the Federation of Malaya Agreement 1948, as the case may be, shall be registered as a citizen of Singapore under the provisions of this Constitution.

Deprivation of Citizenship

- 61.—(i) A citizen of Singapore who is a citizen by registration or by naturalization shall cease to be such a citizen if he is deprived of his citizenship by an order of the Government made in accordance with the provisions of this Article.
- (ii) The Government may, by order, deprive any such citizen of his citizenship if the Government is satisfied that the registration or certificate of naturalization:
- (a) was obtained by means of fraud, false representation or the concealment of any material fact; or
  - (b) was effected or granted by mistake.
- (iii) The Government may, by order, deprive any such citizen of his citizenship if the Government is satisfied that that citizen has, within the period of five years after registration or naturalization, been sentenced in any country to imprisonment for a term of not less than the equivalent in the currency of that country and has not received a free pardon in respect of the offence for which he was so sentenced.
- (iv) No person shall be deprived of citizenship under this Article unless the Government is satisfied that it is not conducive to the public good that that person should continue to be a citizen of Singapore; and clause (ii) or under clause (iii) of this Article if the Government is satisfied that as a result of the deprivation he would not be a citizen of any country.

- (v) This Article shall not apply to any person who has been naturalized as a citizen of Singapore under the provisions of the Federal Constitution.

Cancellation of Enrolment as Citizen

62.—(i) Where a person has been enrolled as a citizen of Singapore under the provisions of Article 56 of this Constitution and the Government is satisfied that the enrolment:

- (a) was obtained by means of fraud, false representation or the concealment of any material fact; or

- (b) was effected by mistake,

The Government may by order cancel the enrolment.

- (ii) Where under this Article a person's enrolment as a citizen of Singapore is cancelled that shall not discharge him from liability in respect of anything done or omitted he shall as provided in the Federal Constitution revert to his former status as a citizen of Malaysia.

Procedure for Deprivation

63.—(i) Before making an order under Article 61 or 62 of this Constitution, the Government shall give the person against whom the order is proposed to be made notice in writing informing him of the ground on which the order is proposed to be made and of his right to have the case referred to a committee of inquiry under this Article.

- (ii) If any person to whom such notice is given applies within such time as may be prescribed to have the case referred to a committee of inquiry, the Government shall, and in any other case may, refer the case to a committee of inquiry consisting of a Chairman, who shall be a person qualified to be appointed as a Judge of the High Court, and two other members appointed by the Government in that behalf.

- (iii) The committee of inquiry shall, on such reference, hold an inquiry in such manner as may be prescribed and submit a report to the Government and the Government shall have regard to such report in making the order.

Termination of Citizenship of Malaysia

64.—Where a person who is a citizen of Singapore has renounced his citizenship of Malaysia or been deprived of his citizenship of Malaysia by the Government of the Federation such person shall be deemed to have renounced or been deprived of his citizenship of Singapore under this Constitution and such person shall cease to be a citizen of Singapore.

Deprivation of Citizenship or Cancellation of Enrolment of Child of Person Losing Citizenship

65.—(i) Where a person has been deprived of his citizenship or his enrolment as a citizen has been cancelled under the provisions of this Part of this Constitution, the Government may by order deprive of his citizenship or, as the case may be, cancel the enrolment of any child of that person under the age of twenty-one years who has been registered or enrolled as a citizen under the provisions of this Constitution or the Singapore Citizenship Ordinance, 1957, and was so registered or enrolled as being the child of that person or of that person's wife or husband.

- (ii) No person shall be deprived of his citizenship under clause (i) of this Article unless the Government is satisfied that it is not conducive to the public good that he should continue to be a citizen; and no person shall be deprived of his citizenship under clause (i) of this Article if the Government is satisfied that as a result of such deprivation he would not be a citizen of any country

Grant of Certificate of Citizenship in Cases of Doubt

66.—Upon application made in that behalf in the prescribed manner the Government may grant in the form prescribed a certificate of citizenship to a person with respect to whose citizenship a doubt exists, whether of fact or of law.

Information to be Given to Federal Government

67.—Where under this Constitution a person becomes a citizen of Singapore by registration or is enrolled as a citizen of Singapore or is deprived of his citizenship or a certificate of citizenship is granted to any person under Article 66 of this Constitution the Government shall notify the Government of the Federation of that fact.

Application of Third Schedule

68.—Until the Legislature otherwise provides by law, the supplementary provisions contained in the Third Schedule to this Constitution shall have effect for the purposes of this Part of this Constitution.

Repeal

- 69.—(i) The Singapore Citizenship Ordinance, 1957, is hereby repealed.
- (ii) Any person who immediately before the coming into operation of this Constitution, was by virtue of the Singapore Citizenship Ordinance, 1957, a citizen of Singapore by birth, descent, registration or naturalisation, shall as from the coming into operation of this Constitution continue, subject to the provisions of this Constitution, to possess that status.
- (iii) Where a person would have been a citizen of Singapore by descent immediately before the coming into operation of this Constitution if his birth had been registered under the provisions of the Singapore Citizenship Ordinance, 1957, he shall become a citizen of Singapore by descent if his birth is registered at a consulate of the Federation or with the Government in the prescribed manner within one year of its occurrence or with the permission of the Government later.
- (iv) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Singapore Citizenship Ordinance, 1957, where a person who has become a citizen of Singapore was liable in respect of things done before the coming into operation of this Constitution to be deprived of that status under the Ordinance, then the Government may, in exercise of the powers delegated by the Government of the Federation, by order deprive him of his citizenship, if proceedings for that purpose are begun during the period of two years after the commencement of this Constitution.
- (v) Where a person is liable to be deprived of citizenship under clause (iv) of this Article and proceedings had before the coming into operation of this Constitution been begun to deprive him of citizenship of Singapore under the provisions of the Singapore Citizenship Ordinance, 1957, those proceedings shall be treated as proceedings to deprive him of citizenship under that clause and shall be continued as such in accordance with the provisions of the Singapore Citizenship Ordinance, 1957, in force immediately before the coming into operation of this Constitution.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE

Interpretation

70.—For the purposes of this Part of this Constitution the expression “public office” shall not include any office the remuneration of the holder of which is calculated on a daily rate.

Public Service Commission

- 71.—(i) There shall be in and for Singapore a Public Service Commission which shall consist of a Chairman and not less than two and not more than four other members, each of whom shall be appointed by writing under his hand by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara, acting in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister.
- (ii) The Chairman shall be a citizen of Malaysia born in Malaya.
- (iii) There shall be a Deputy Chairman who shall be a person chosen by the members of the Public Service Commission from among their own number.

- (iv) A person appointed to be a member of the Public Service Commission shall thereafter be ineligible for appointment to any public office.
- (v) At any meeting of the Public Service Commission three members who shall include either the Chairman or Deputy Chairman, and may include both of them, shall form a quorum. If the quorum is present, the Commission shall not be disqualified for the transaction of business by reason of any vacancy among its members, and any proceeding of the Commission shall be valid notwithstanding that some person not entitled so to do took part therein.
- (vi) Before assuming the duties of his office, the Chairman and every other member of the Public Service Commission shall take and subscribe before the Chief Justice of Singapore or some other Judge of the High Court the appropriate Oath for the due execution of his office in the form set out in the First Schedule to this Constitution.

Disqualification for Appointment to the Commissioner

72.—A person shall not be appointed to be a member of the Public Service Commission if he is, and shall cease to be a member if he becomes:

- (i) a public officer;
- (ii) a member of, or in the employment of, any corporation incorporated directly by the provisions of any law for the time being in force in the State;
- (iii) a Member of either House of Parliament or of the Legislative Assembly or a duly nominated candidate for election as such Member;

- (iv) a member of any trade union or of any body or association affiliated to a trade union; or
- (v) the holder of any office in any political association.

Tenure of Office

- 73.—(i) Subject to the provisions of Article 72 of this Constitution every member of the Public Service Commission shall, unless he earlier resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Yang di-Pertuan Negara or is removed therefrom under this Article, hold office for a period of five years from the date of his appointment, but shall be eligible for re-appointment.
- (ii) If the Prime Minister, or the Chairman of the Public Service Commission after consulting with the Prime Minister, represents to the Yang di-Pertuan Negara that a Member of the Public Service Commission ought to be removed from office for inability to discharge the functions of his office (whether arising from infirmity of body or mind or any other cause) or for misbehaviour, the Yang di-Pertuan Negara shall refer that representation to a tribunal consisting of the Chief Justice of Singapore and two other Judges of the High Court nominated for that purpose by the Chief Justice of Singapore and shall, if that tribunal recommends, remove that member from office by writing under his hand.
- (iii) The tribunal constituted under the preceding clause shall regulate its own procedure and may make rules for that purpose.

Terms of Service of Chairman and Member of the Commission

- 74.—(i) The Chairman and other members of the Public Service Commission shall be paid such salary and allowances as may from time to time be determined, and such salary and allowances shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund.
- (ii) Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the terms of service of the members of the Public Service Commission may either:
- (a) be prescribed by or under any law made under this Constitution; or
  - (b) (in so far as they are not prescribed by or under any such law) be prescribed by the Yang di-Pertuan Negara.
- (iii) The terms of service of any member of the Public Service Commission shall not be altered to his disadvantage during his continuance in office.
- (iv) For the purposes of the preceding clause, in so far as the terms of service of a member of the Public Service Commission depend upon his option, any terms for which he opts shall be taken to be more advantageous to him than any for which he might have opted.

Appointment etc. of Public Officers

- 75.—(i) Subject to the provisions of this Constitution and the Federal Constitution it shall be the duty of the Public Service Commission to appoint, confirm, emplace on the permanent or pensionable establishment, promote, transfer and exercise disciplinary control over public officers.
- (ii) In clause (i) of this Article:

“appoint” does not include an appointment to act in an office for two months or less;

“transfer” does not include transfer without a change of rank within a department of Government.

- (iii) The promotion of public officers shall be on the basis of official qualifications, experience and merit.

Protection of Pension Rights

76.—(i) The law applicable to any pension, gratuity or other like allowance (in this Article referred to as an “award”) granted to any public officer or to his widow, children, dependant or personal representatives shall be that in force on the relevant day or any later law not less favourable to the person concerned.

- (ii) For the purposes of this Article the relevant day is:
  - (a) in relation to an award made before Malaysia Day, the date on which the award was made;
  - (b) in relation to an award made after Malaysia Day to or in respect of any person who was a public officer before that day, the day immediately before that day;
  - (c) in relation to an award made to or in respect of any person who first became a public officer on or after Malaysia Day, the date on which he first became a public officer.
- (iii) For the purposes of this Article, where the Law applicable to an award depends on the option of the person to whom it is made, the law for which he opts shall be taken to be more favourable to him than any other law for which he might have opted.

Power of Public Service Commission in relation to Pensions, etc.

77.—(i) Where under any law any person or authority has a discretion:

- (a) to decide whether or not any award shall be made; or
- (b) to withhold, reduce in amount or suspend any such award that has been made, that award shall be made and may not be withheld, reduced in amount or suspended unless the Public Service Commission concurs in the refusal to grant the award or, as the case may be, in the decision to withhold it, reduce it in amount or suspend it.

(ii) Where the amount of any award that may be made to any person is not fixed by law, the amount of the award to be made to him shall be the greatest amount for which he is eligible unless the Public Service Commission concurs in the making of an award of a small amount.

(iii) In this Article “award” has the same meaning as in Article 76 of this Constitution.

Pensions etc. to be Charged on the Consolidated Fund

78.—Pensions, gratuities and other like allowances granted in respect of the public service shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund.

Pension Rights on Transfer

79.—(i) Notwithstanding any provision of this Constitution relating to the circumstances in which a public officer may vacate his office, any public officer may, with the consent of the Government (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), relinquish his office for the purpose of transfer to some other public office or to an office in any other public service, and if he so relinquishes his office, his claim to any pension, gratuity or other like allowance shall not thereby be prejudiced.

- (ii) For the purposes of this Article, the expression “other public service” has the meaning given to it by the Pensions Ordinance, 1956, as in force immediately before the date of the coming into operation of this Constitution.

Regulations regarding Commission

- 80.—(i) Subject to the provisions of any State law, the Yang di-Pertuan Negara may make regulations for all or any of the following matters, that is to say:
- (a) the division of public offices into Divisions and Services;
  - (b) the prescribing of Schemes regulating the recruitment, service and promotion of members of such Services; and
  - (c) the conduct and discipline of the public service.
- (ii) The Public Service Commission may, subject to the provisions of this Constitution, regulate its procedure and make rules for that purpose, and may, in connection with the discharge of its functions, confer powers and impose duties on any public officer or any authority of the Government.
  - (iii) The Public Service Commission may, by directions in writing and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit, delegate to any public officer or to any board of public officers appointed by it, and of its functions under clause (i) of Article 75 of this Constitution in respect of any grade of the public service and that officer or board shall exercise those functions under the direction and control of the Public Service Commission.

Performance by Public Service Commission of Other Functions

81.—The Legislature may by law provide for the exercise of other functions by the Public Service Commission.

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

No Taxation unless Authorized by Law

82.—No tax or rate shall be levied by or for the purposes of the State except by or under the authority of law.

The Consolidated Fund

83.—There shall be in and for the State a Consolidated Fund into which, subject to the provisions of any law for the time being in force in the State, shall be paid all revenues of the State not allocated to specific purpose.

Estimates

84.—(i) The Minister responsible for finance shall, before the end of each financial year, cause to be prepared annual estimates of revenue and expenditure for public services of the State during the succeeding financial year which, when approved by the Cabinet, shall be laid before the Legislative Assembly.

(ii) The estimates of expenditure shall show separately:

- (a) the total sums required to meet expenditure charged in the Consolidated Fund; and
  - (b) subject to clause (ii) of this Article the sums respectively required to meet the heads of other expenditure proposed to be met from the Consolidated Fund.
- (iii) The estimates of revenue to be shown in the estimates shall not include any sums received by way of Zakat, Fitrah and Bait-ul-Mal or similar Muslim revenue; and the sums to be shown under paragraph (b) of clause (ii) of this Article shall not include:
- (a) sums representing the proceeds of any loan raised by the State for specific purposes and appropriated for those purposes by the law authorizing the raising of the loan;
  - (b) sums representing any money or interest on money received by the State subject to a trust and to be applied in accordance with the terms of the trust;
  - (c) sums representing any money held by the State which has been received or appropriated for the purpose of any trust fund established by or in accordance with State law.
- (iv) The Minister responsible for finance shall also lay before the Legislative Assembly together with the estimates of expenditure, a statement showing as far as is practicable the assets and liabilities of the State at the end of the last completed financial year, the manner in which those assets are invested or held and the general heads in respect of which those liabilities are outstanding.

Authorization of Expenditure

85.—(i) The heads of expenditure to be met from the Consolidated Fund other than statutory expenditure and other than expenditure to be met by such sums as are mentioned in clause (iii) of Article 84 of this Constitution shall be included in a Bill to be known as a Supply Bill, providing for the issue from the Consolidated Fund of the sums necessary to meet the expenditure and the appropriation of those sums for the purposes specified therein.

(ii) Whenever:

(a) any moneys are expended or are likely to be expended in any financial year upon any service which are in excess of the sum provided for that service by the Supply law relating to that year; or

(b) any moneys are expended or are likely to be expended (otherwise than by way of statutory expenditure) in any financial year upon any new service not provided for by the Supply law relating to that year, supplementary estimates (or, as the case may be, statements of excess) shall be prepared by the Minister responsible for finance and, when approved by the Cabinet, shall be laid before and voted on by the Legislative Assembly; in respect of all supplementary expenditure so voted the Minister responsible for finance may, at any time before the end of the financial year, introduce into the Legislative Assembly a Supplementary Supply Bill containing, under appropriate heads, the estimated sums so voted and shall, as soon as possible after the end of each financial year, introduce into the Legislative Assembly a Final Supply Bill containing any such sums which have not yet been included in any Supply Bill.

- (iii) That part of any estimate of expenditure laid before the Legislative Assembly which shows statutory expenditure shall not be voted on by the Legislative Assembly, and such expenditure shall, without further authority of the Legislative Assembly, be paid out of the Consolidated Fund.
- (iv) For the purposes of this Article and the preceding Article statutory expenditure means expenditure charged on the Consolidated Fund or on the general revenues and assets of Singapore by virtue of the provisions of clause (iii) of Article 4, clause (viii) of Article 19, Article 25, clause (iii) of Article 26, clause (i) of Article 74, Article 78 and Article 88 of this Constitution or by virtue of the provisions of any other law for the time being in force in Singapore.

Meeting Expenditure from the Consolidated Fund

- 86.—(i) Subject to the following provisions of this Article, no moneys shall be withdrawn from the Consolidated Fund unless they are:
- (a) charged on the Consolidated Fund; or
  - (b) authorised to be issued by a Supply or Supplementary Supply law.
- (ii) No moneys shall be withdrawn from the Consolidated Fund except in the manner provided by Federal law.
  - (iii) Clause (i) of this Article shall not apply to any such sums as are mentioned in clause (iii) of Article 84 of this Constitution.

- (iv) The Legislative Assembly may, by resolution approving estimates containing a vote on account, authorise expenditure for part of any year before the passing of the Supply law for that year, but the aggregate sums so voted shall be included, under the appropriate heads, in the Supply Bill for that year.
- (v) If a Supply Bill has not become law by the first day of the financial year to which it relates, the Minister responsible for finance may, with the prior approval of the Cabinet, authorise such expenditure not otherwise authorised by law) from the Consolidated Fund or other Government funds as he may consider essential for the continuance of the public services shown in the estimates until the Supply Bill becomes law:
Provided that the expenditure so authorised for any service shall not exceed one-quarter of the amount voted for that service in the Supply law for the preceding year.

Contingencies Fund

- 87.—(i) The Legislature may by law create a Contingencies Fund and authorise the Minister responsible for finance to make advances from that Fund if he is satisfied that there is an urgent and unforeseen need for expenditure for which no provision or no sufficient provision has been made by a Supply law.
- (ii) Where any advance is made by virtue of the authority conferred under the preceding clause, a supplementary estimate of the sum required to replace the amount so advanced shall as soon as practicable be laid before and voted on by the Legislative Assembly a the sum so voted shall be included in a Supplementary Supply Bill or a Final Supply Bill.

Debt Charges and Moneys Required to Satisfy Judgments

88.—(i) The following are hereby charged on the Consolidated Fund:

- (a) all debt charges for which the State is liable; and
  - (b) any moneys required to satisfy any judgment, decision or award against the State by any court or tribunal.
- (ii) For the purposes of this Article debt charges include interest, sinking fund charges, repayment or amortisation of debt and all expenditure in connection with the raising of loans on the security of the Consolidated Fund and the service and redemption of debt created thereby.
